HAITIAN-AMERICAN HIP-HOP YOUNG PEOPLE RETURN TO HAITI SUPPORTED BY QUEEN MOTHER DR. BLAKELY

{New York, NY Monday, February 08, 2010} – Haitian-American Hip-Hop young people return to Haiti supported by Queen Mother Dr. Blakely, Community Mayor of Harlem. Queen Mother Dr. Blakely prepares Haitian Hip Hop young people to return to their Ancestors home in search of Humanitarian efforts for the nation of Haiti. Queen Mother Dr. Blakely states, “Young people of Haitian Descendant have a right to be engaged and involved in the rescue and recovery of rebuilding the nation. It will take youth leadership in the future vision of assessment, policy and implementation on the ground in restructuring strong participation of the Haitian people in the decision-making process. This will rebuild the nation with the will of democracy to empower its people for the Country of Haiti.”

New Future Foundation, Inc, an NGO of the United Nations with ECOSOC status is sponsoring two {2} young males as emerging filmmakers that will capture images of this devastation and the transformation of a nation in helping envisioning the new development of Haiti. New Future Foundation Inc encourages the involvement through youth, by youth, for youth because they are the future leadership of the nation. United Nations twenty-five {25} years Veteran Security Officer, Mr. Christopher Reid spoke with Bourgeois and Simon about their humanitarian mission to Haiti. Since 2008, Attorney Jean Charles has been representing New Future Foundation, Inc in the nation of Haiti assessing the needs of children, youth and women as we now send an envoy of two {2} young males to join in this humanitarian mission in support of Wyclef Jean.

Ben Bourgeoiz says, “My objective is to travel to the island of Haiti for two months to film and photograph the current crisis conditions and assessing what is needed in the active daily lifestyle in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. I am going to keep a journal of day-to-day development, interviewing and communicating with local survivors, doctors, rescue teams, and humanitarians. I will be assisting in mobilizing and organizing units with the humanitarian, economic and social development. In addition, my objective is to document the urban health and environment, local economic growth, city management, governance, housing, humanitarian assistance, infrastructure, and services.

Igeoma Simon states, “I am just a lonely soldier who is going to war. My whole life's purpose is in my name. I am Royalty and I am going to Haiti to bring hope to people who have no where to turn. I am going to Haiti to bring the force, The UNION, UNITY! The students don't know when they can go back to school, because the countryside is over populated; people don't have food or shoes. I am going to show our solution. First, I will visit a school in the Capital that survived the Earthquake. This School will be one of the two that we further develop. The Second School is in the North West region of the country. This is where our 2010 mobile clinic would have begun in July. Now it is a necessity. When I reach the countryside I will organize youth activities to begin Relief and Reclaim my legacy.”
